Entrepreneur – make sure that your income is secured and that you recover quickly from an accident or occupational disease.

Quick recovery
As an entrepreneur, your work input is crucial to your business, and business continuity depends on you. If you have an accident or occupational disease, your work input will be reduced or end altogether, jeopardising your entire business. This is why your primary objective is to get back to work as soon as possible.

If you have an accident, Pohjola's Accident Insurance for Entrepreneurs will provide income security, and either Pohjola Hospital or one of our partner hospitals or clinics will provide the high-quality and quick treatment.

 Fluent treatment chain
Our fluent treatment chain speeds up your recovery and return to work considerably. Pohjola Hospital has successfully and significantly reduced treatment times, and we want to replicate these results throughout our clinical partnership network.

Pohjola Hospital can offer you a comprehensive set of examinations, treatments and rehabilitation. Pohjola Hospital has Finland's best experts and imaging equipment.

A serious accident can lead to a lengthy rehabilitation period and disability. Efficient and properly timed rehabilitation can help you regain your working and functional capacity and to shorten your disability period. Identifying the need for rehabilitation at an early stage as possible is part of our core expertise.

In order to speed up rehabilitation and a return to work, Pohjola Hospital employs persons dedicated to work in close cooperation with Pohjola's rehabilitation advisors, and, being experts in vocational rehabilitation, they coordinate matters related to people returning to work.

Have you taken out a pension policy for self-employed persons?
You can take out Pohjola’s Accident Insurance for Entrepreneurs if you also have a pension policy for self-employed persons (YEL, under the Self-Employed Persons’ Pensions Act). Family members covered by the pension insurance under YEL can also take out this policy. If you are a new entrepreneur, you can take out the policy right away. However, remember to take out YEL from the same day to ensure to continue to be covered.

Ensure coverage during work and leisure time.
Accidents can happen at any time. We recommend that you take out a policy that covers both working time and leisure time. This gives you round-the-clock coverage.

Accidents occurring during work and occupational diseases are covered by entrepreneur’s accident insurance for working hours. Two alternatives are available for leisure time.

Entrepreneur’s comprehensive leisure-time accident insurance is valid during almost any activity outside work, also when doing sport and when travelling abroad.

You can also choose a less comprehensive leisure-time accident insurance. No compensation will be made if the accident occurred in any of the following sports:

Compensation vs. other benefits

Accident and occupational disease insurance for working hours takes precedence over all other social insurance.

In the case of a road accident that occurs on the employee’s way to or from work, compensation for bodily injury is primarily paid from the entrepreneur’s accident insurance. Entrepreneurs may also get additional compensation from motor liability insurance.

Workers’ compensation insurance also has its primary nature with respect to employee pension and sickness allowance. Authorised pension providers and the Social Insurance Institution of Finland (Kela) integrate benefits they have granted for the same period with the compensation for loss of income paid under workers’ compensation insurance.

The daily allowance payable under a leisure-time accident insurance is subtracted with an amount corresponding to the daily allowance pursuant to the Health Insurance Act and the disability pension pursuant to some other act.

The Act on occupational accidents and diseases contains some restrictions concerning coverable losses. A leisure-time insurance does not cover road accidents, for example. This means that you may be entitled to compensation from a motor liability insurance.
