What is this type of insurance?

Entrepreneur's voluntary occupational accident insurance is an insurance under the Workers' Compensation Act which covers entrepreneurs against occupational accidents occurred and occupational diseases appeared in the entrepreneur's work. You can take out this insurance if you have obligatory or voluntary pension insurance as specified in the Self-Employed Persons' Pensions Act. Any compensation payable under the insurance takes priority over other statutory cover.

What is insured?

- ✓ The insurance covers occupational accidents and diseases sustained by a specified entrepreneur in his/her work.
- ✓ We will compensate, for example, medical treatment expenses, loss of income caused by disability, rehabilitation and costs caused by permanent handicap.
- ✓ Compensation will be paid on the basis of Workers' Compensation Act. The earnings specified in the Self-Employed Persons' Pensions Act which were valid at the time of loss will be used as the basis for the compensation for loss of income and survivors' pension.

What is not insured?

The insurance does not cover

- ✗ entrepreneurs who have no pension insurance as specified in the Self-employed Persons' Pensions Act
- ✗ agricultural entrepreneurs, or grantees
- ✗ athletes
- ✗ the entrepreneur falling ill or sustaining a leisure-time accident.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Insurance events, i.e. occupational accidents and diseases, are only covered when the insurance event fulfils the definition provided in the Act and occurred in the circumstances referred to in the Act. A further requirement is that the injury or disease is likely to have a medical cause-effect relationship with the insurance event.

Where am I covered?

The insurance is valid when the entrepreneur performs his/her work

- ✓ in Finland
- ✓ temporarily outside Finland.

What are my obligations?

- The correct information must be provided when applying for the insurance.
- The insurance company must be informed if any information you submitted when applying for the policy or what is entered in the policy document is not complete or if significant changes have taken place.
- The insurance company must be notified of an occupational accident or disease within 30 business days from the date of loss.
- The information requested must be provided when claiming compensation.

When and how do I pay?

The insurance premium must be paid by the due date. It can be agreed whether the annual premium is paid in one or several instalments.

When does the cover start and end?

The insurance begins, at the earliest, when the insurance company received the insurance application. Insurance coverage ends when the policyholder terminates it.

The insurance will terminate on the end date of the pension insurance specified in the Self-Employed Persons' Pensions Act. The insurance may also terminate retrospectively. Remember to inform the insurance company if your pension insurance ends.

The insurance company also has the right to terminate the insurance cover under certain conditions.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel the policy in writing when logged into the Internet Service or by filling in the appropriate form in any OP branch office. You may not terminate the insurance policy by telephone.
